Cost: Free. Thanks to our generous donors, fundraising projects, voluntary gifts of grateful parents and volunteer teachers/cadets at camp.

Reading camp is a failure-free camp experience for kids entering grades 3-6 with a focus on improving reading skills. Campers receive individual and small group instruction in the morning and a session in the afternoon each day. Campers participate in six learning centers each day with various games and activities to build their confidence and reading skills. Skills practiced during reading camp include: phonics, decoding/encoding, writing, reading comprehension, vocabulary development, and reading strategies. All sessions are led by volunteer teachers. The rest of the day is filled with fun camp activities led by college-aged counselors including swimming, canoeing and kayaking, group games, hikes and evening campfire programs. Teacher referral and test scores are requested prior to camp.
