2014 TECUMSEH TRAIL HIKE

Saturday, October 25

The Hike. A 7-mile day hike through the woods and hills of Brown County on one of Indiana's premier hiking trails—the Tecumseh Trail—that runs for 30 miles from Morgan-Monroe State Forest to the Lutheran Hills property and beyond. Participants have the option to arrive on Friday night (housing provided at Lutheran Hills) or Saturday morning. We begin with breakfast together at Lutheran Hills at 8:00 am. The group will be transported to Low Gap at the edge of Morgan-Monroe State Forest where our hike begins. Lunch, on the trail, is provided.

Cost: $20. Includes housing (if desired) and breakfast at Lutheran Hills, plus lunch on the trail.

The Leaders. Your trail guides are Mark Radloff and Dave Thurman, both veteran Tecumseh Trail hikers. Mark is the Executive Director of Lutheran Outdoor Ministries Indiana-Kentucky (LOMIK). Dave Thurman is an outdoor enthusiast who serves on the LOMIK Board of Directors as Treasurer. Dave & Mark have clocked a lot of trail miles over the years, including climbing Mt Rainier and Mt Kilimanjaro together.

What Should I Expect? Yes, it's a 7-mile hike, but you walk at your own pace. If you are in good physical shape and up for a challenge, you will find it to be a very enjoyable hike!

What Should I Bring? Dress for a walk in the woods—comfortable walking shoes, small backpack, raingear if the forecast calls for it, trekking poles (optional) and a water bottle.

How To Register. Register by phone (260.667-7750) or email (mark@lomik.org) before Friday, October 24.
